The Crown of Kuros - Terrestria Chronicles Volume 4 Ed Dunlop

Travel back in time to the kingdom of Terrestria, the realm of good King Emmanuel, where knights and their ladies live in castles and where dragons still roam (occasionally). Yet the land is at war. Evil, cruel Argamor wants the throne. And he has loyal followers placed strategically throughout the kingdom. Who will win the battle for Terrestria, and on which side will Josiah find himself? The Castle of Faith is in an uproar when the priceless Crown of Kuros is stolen in broad daylight from the castle keep. All evidence points to Morphina who is in league with Argamor. Prince Josiah, Prince Selwyn, and the other knights of the castle engage in a quest to find the crown before it falls into the hands of Argamor. But Josiah alone can recover the crown, and to do so he must engage in an impossible battle. This fourth adventure, the very heart of the Terrestria allegory series, will challenge the reader to surrender his heart to the King. Alive with fast-paced action in a medieval setting, the Terrestria allegory series encourages the reader to live as a child of the King.
