Beyond man-made frontiers of urban spaces exists the rich mixture of landscape, people, and cultures that make up Colombia, one of the most geographically diverse countries in the world. The photographs that illustrate this visual tour of Colombia are taken by a Roundshot 360° camera that revolves full-circle around a single point, photographically capturing the experience of a person scanning as far as the eye can see in every direction.

Afuera de las fronteras de espacios urbanos existe la confluencia orgánica de tierra, gente, y cultura que constituye Colombia, un país con la geografía más diversa del mundo. La fotografía que ilustra esta guía visual viene de una cámara de 360° que revuelve y captura en la cinta la experiencia de una persona mirando tan lejos que puede ver los ojos en cada dirección posible.
