Rope, Twine and Net Making (Shire Library) Anthony Sanctuary

Since ancient times rope, twine and nets have been used for the essential elements of survival hunting, roofing and bedding yet in today's modern world they are often taken for granted. This book charts the history of the ancient crafts of rope, twine and net making, describing the traditional fibres and techniques used, as well as the modern machines and man-made fibres that took their place. With a detailed explanation of the skills of net fitting and rigging, and a list of places to visit, this Shire classic is illustrated throughout with black and white photographs showing how the methods of rope, twine and net making have evolved over the years.
