When they hear the word Belize, most people think of tanning, beach-lounging, and especially diving off the coast. Even though she and her classmates are there to do none of those things, Taylor still imagines that a fun-filled week lies ahead of them in A Taste for Belize. She soon learns amidst reptiles, insects, unidentified screams in the night, and unreliable plumbing that perhaps she has been taking things for granted back in the States. But the more she mingles with the local life and the more she learns about Belizean industry and economy, the more she realizes that luxury does not equal necessity. Join Taylor on an incredible journey of self-discovery and human connection in this entertaining (and educational!) travelogue as she slowly learns some of life's greatest lessons, including that less truly is more.
