Loyal to Empire: The Life of General Sir Charles Monro, 1860-1929 Patrick Crowley

Winston Churchill did not describe General Sir Charles Monro in the most glowing terms. Referring to Monro's brave decision to recommend a withdrawal from the Gallipoli disaster, Churchill said: 'He came, he saw, he capitulated.' Monro was one of a handful of senior officers selected to command a division in 1914 with the BEF and he also led a corps and army on the Western Front. After Gallipoli he supported the war effort from India as Commander-in-Chief and was involved in the aftermath of the Amritsar massacre. It should not be forgotten that he was responsible for dramatically improving tactics within the army.
