Under the Harrow: A Novel Flynn Berry

"I couldn't stop. It's like Broadchurch written by Elena Ferrante." —Claire Messud, author of The Woman Upstairs

"A meticulously wrought new thriller [that] envelops you in its suspenseful plot from the first page."
—Huffington Post, "22 Summer 2016 Books You Won't Want To Miss"

When Nora takes the train from London to visit her sister in the countryside, she expects to find her waiting at the station, or at home cooking dinner. But when she walks into Rachel's familiar house, what she finds is entirely different: her sister has been the victim of a brutal murder.

Stunned and adrift, Nora finds she can't return to her former life. An unsolved assault in the past has shaken her faith in the police, and she can't trust them to find her sister's killer. Haunted by the murder and the secrets that surround it, Nora is under the harrow: distressed and in danger. As Nora's fear turns to obsession, she becomes as unrecognizable as the sister her investigation uncovers.

A riveting psychological thriller and a haunting exploration of the fierce love between two sisters, the distortions of grief, and the terrifying power of the past, Under the Harrow marks the debut of an extraordinary new writer.

From the Trade Paperback edition.
