Faces Of Fire

En route to Alpha Malurian Six to settle a dispute between two religions, the U.S.S. *Enterprise*TM first stops to do a routine check on the progress of a terraforming colony on Beta Canzandia Three -- a colony whose inhabitants include Carol and David Marcus.

While Spock is left behind at the terraforming colony to continue his scientific studies, the rest of the crew heads to Alpha Malurian Six to find the dispute has turned to war.

As Kirk, McCoy, and Scotty search for a solution to end the conflict, a ship piloted by a Klingon faction arrives at the terraforming colony to take control of the facility. When colonists are imprisoned, Spock and David must defeat the Klingons or face certain death...

Daniel Bryant:

As a college student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library in order to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their hobby. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Faces of Fire (Star Trek: The Original Series Book 58) can make you sense more interested to read.
