The Nature of the Gods Marcus Tullius Cicero

Here is presented Cicero's theological exposition, "The Nature of the Gods", in which the ancient Roman philosopher reflects upon the philosophical questions of religion. "He was, he says, urged to them as a means of relief from the irksome political inactivity to which he was reduced by the supremacy in the state of Julius Cæsar, and he also hoped to find in them a distraction from the grief caused him by the death of his daughter Tullia. He felt, too, that for the sake of the national credit it was right that the philosophy of Greece should be brought before his countrymen in their own tongue, and in the case of the special branch of philosophy discussed in the 'De Natura' he had another and more pressing motive. For it was necessary there to consider those theological questions the answers to which determined the character and even the possibility of religion, and therefore, in his opinion, of morality as well."

Lowell Bohler:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's internal or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this The Nature of the Gods can make you really feel more interested to read.
