Grammar for Grownups: A Self-Paced Training Manual Janis Fisher Chan

This book is essential for anyone who wants to learn or review the right way to use grammar and punctuation. A complete self-study program in a handy workbook format, it provides the same practical techniques and strategies Advanced Communication Designs' instructors have taught to business and professional peoplesince 1980. In only eight lessons, you'll learn to understand the terms used to talk about writing; write complete, clear sentences instead of fragments and run-ons; use pronouns and verbs correctly; use commas and other punctuation correctly; avoid confusing commonly confused words; and avoid gender bias. Filled with practice exercises with immediate feedback, the book can be used for self-study or as the text for a class.
