A Moment to Decide : The Crisis in Mainstream Presbyterianism (Denominational Studies Series)

Lewis C. Daly

An in-depth study of the right-wing currents within the Presbyterian Church, complete with more than 600 footnotes. The report details the efforts of these currents to gain influence in the church through wedge issue campaigns against women, gays and lesbians, and the church's broader social justice tradition. The report begins with conservative currents in the 1930s and traces their evolution to the founding of the Presbyterian Lay Committee and other contemporary organizations. Preface by Anne Hale Johnson, Chair of the Board of Union Theological Seminary. Foreword by The Reverend Dr. Robert W. Bohl, former moderator of the church.
