To live on an island is to live a life apart. The island home reflects its owner's reason for escape, whether it's a person who turns to island living to feel more of this world, or the person who wishes to remove himself from the mainstream. Regardless, the island homeowner is individualistic and creative, and every space in Island Living speaks of a space that is its owner's dream come to life, be it simplicity or utter luxury.

With more than 150 images and written in the transporting and distinctive tone that Paul's readers have come to expect, Island Living is a book of fantasy?the home that is both refuge and wish embodied.
