Poems About Anything And Everything Dennis A Massei

This book is a compilation of poems I've written over the years beginning when I was fifteen years old. Take the title, Poems About Anything And Everything, it is just that. I chose all my titles using the theme Anything and Everything. I wrote a couple of Mother's day poems, a Father's Day poem, and poems about the lonesome blues, and the rest, anything and everything else. A lot of my poems I'm hoping get into the hands of famous country and western singers, who might offer me royalties to let them make songs out of my poems, or at least a few of them.
