Adobe InDesign 1.0 is a powerful new professional page-layout application with a palette-based interface, close integration with Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator, and full support for PDF files. Learning a program as feature-filled as InDesign requires a skilled teacher. And who better than the Adobe Creative Team? Adobe InDesign Classroom in a Book teaches InDesign in short, self-paced lessons that use the exciting new techniques and tools found in the program, all designed and tested by the training experts at Adobe. Thanks to the Classroom in a Book series' popular lesson-based format, you'll quickly learn what you need to put InDesign to work for you. If you're new to page layout, you can start with introductory lessons that familiarize you with the interface, tools, views, and frames of the InDesign environment. If you're a more experienced designer who's making the switch from QuarkXPress or Adobe PageMaker, you can go straight to the topics that interest you. The accompanying CD-ROM includes files customized for each lesson, which adds rich, visual content to the package.)
