Pearl Harbor 1941 (Oahu, Hawaii) 1:9,600 Visitor's Map, waterproof FRANKO, 2011 edition

This is a double sided, waterproof and rip-proof folded map. Sheet size: 14" x 21". Since Pearl Harbor has such an important place in American history, and since the site and its heroes who died there on that day are so revered by all Americans, it is a most complete, compelling and respectful map rendering of the "Day of Infamy," December 7, 1941. The map is loaded with images and information about the attack on Pearl Harbor, as well as present day Pearl Harbor. If you study this map you will learn what happened on that dreadful, infamous day.

Side one of the map is a historical account of what happened at Pearl Harbor when the Japanese Empire attacked on December 7, 1941. This side is depicted in sepia colors, like a 1941 newspaper. Here, you can see the history laid out right before your eyes. Each of America's battleships are laid out on the map, with short descriptions and stories of what happened. This abridgement of history is extremely informative. Although it is said that a picture tells a thousand words, and there are many pictures to help with this superb history lesson, there are also a couple thousand words.

Side two is in full, Hawaiian color. This side is a depiction of Pearl Harbor as it is today. Here, you will read about the four main attractions at present day Pearl Harbor, and about the USS UTAH memorial. The four main attractions are the USS ARIZONA Memorial, the USS MISSOURI Museum, the USS BOWFIN Submarine Museum and Park, and the Pacific Aviation Museum, slated to open on December 7, 2006, with ongoing phases opening for several years to come. Also shown are the locations of the Battleship MISSOURI Memorial ticket office, the Battleship MISSOURI Memorial shuttle pickup, (which will also soon serve for the Pacific Aviation Museum pickup), the USS ARIZONA Memorial Visitor Center, and the USS ARIZONA Memorial boat launch.
